ZBIGNIEW PREISNER AND FRIENDS. OLD AND NEW CHRISTMAS CAROLS

26 January 2020, Sunday, 8.00 p.m.
Filharmonia Narodowa, Warsaw

Ticket price: PLN 255

Beautiful Christmas tunes

An extremely romantic and melancholic concert of Christmas carols composed by Zbigniew Preisner. The Polish composer, who had recently been celebrating 40 years of his artistic career, is mainly known as a composer of film music and his compositions found their way to many films directed by recognised directors worldwide.

The Christmas carols concert is a unique opportunity to experience another artistic facet of the composer. Well-known Christmas carols, this time in reflective and melancholy versions, often touch on problems of the modern world. Joining the artist on stage will be Beata Rybotycka, Maciej Balcar, Edyta Krzemień, Joanna Pocica as well as Jan Karpiel-Bulecka with his band. The soloists will be accompanied by an ensemble made up of the best Polish musicians.

The power of American pop music

An exceptional concert by Melanie Martinez, an American singer, lyricist and director of music videos. She gained international fame through participation in the third US edition of The Voice.

The concert in Warsaw is part of "The K-12 Tour" world tour, comprising cities in North America and Europe. The tour promotes the artist's latest album titled "K-12", which at the same time is the soundtrack of a music film she wrote, directed and starred in. Out of every ticket the concert organisers shall donate $ 1 to organisations bringing dignity and equity for communities who need it.

In love (not only) with music

An exceptional proposal prepared by Filharmonia Narodowa – a symphonic concert, the main motif of which will be the most beautiful and inspiring feeling of Love. A special even for all admirers of the Feast of Love and Affection as well as others.

During this exceptional concert on St. Valentine's Day you will have the opportunity to listen i.a. to the symphonic passage from the opera The Love of Danae, Three Old Viennese Dances for violin and orchestra: Lovely Rosemary, Love's Sorrow, Love's Joy, or a composition, which is one of the most beautiful chapters of early 20th century British music – the moving interlude The Walk to the Paradise Garden by Frederick Delius. The concert will be an excellent opportunity to spend St. Valentine's Day in a special one-of-a-kind way.

The Cuban heartbeat rhythm

An exceptional show for all fans of the Buena Vista Social Club film. An energetic performance by Cuban vocalists, dancers and musicians from Pasion de Buena Vista group, who will take the audience to an exotic journey through the streets of Havana, all this to the joyful Caribbean rhythms from the well-known film's soundtrack.

The astounding Cuban show blends exuberant dance, wild music, beautiful scenography and captivating choreography. Pasion de Buena Vista is true declaration of love for Cuba. Well-known dancer and choreographer Francisco Blanco Prada promises: "This performance will take you into a new dimension of dance and singing; Pasion de Buena Vista – pure Cuban fire."

A feast for the soul and senses

One of the most beautiful classic ballets in three acts, with a prologue and epilogue, on the stage of Polish National Opera. Choreography by Joseph Mazilier and Marius Petipa with music composed by Adolphe-Charles Adam, based on the famous 1814 poetic novel The Corsair by George Gordon Byron.

The show presents a story of romantic love between the beautiful slave Medora and a pirate by the name of Conrad. It is adorned by phenomenal costumes and scenography by Luisa Spinatelli. The libretto offers a wide array of exotic adventures and attractions: a pirate ship, dancing slaves, mutiny and kidnapping in a harem, alpha males fighting for the beautiful Greek. The show, with its premiere in 2016 and now brought from the Viennese Staatsballet, is a real treat for adherents of tradition in ballet.

A sentimental journey inspired by beautiful voices

A magnificent concert with Leonard Cohen's unforgettable hits performed by Polish vocalists. Leonard Cohen's 85th birthday will be in September. It is the perfect time to encounter his music and such great hits as: In My Secret Life, Suzanne or Dance Me to the End of Love in the wonderful company of women, stars of the Polish music scene.

Anita Lipnicka, Natalia Kukulska, Daria Zawiałow, Grażyna Łobaszewska, Julia Pietrucha, Barbara Wrońska, Matylda Damięcka and Paulina Przybysz will perform extremely romantic and unparalleled pieces by the Canadian artist. Unique interpretation by outstanding artists, lyrics by Maciej Zembaty and ambiguous arrangements by Leszek Biolik make the concert a unique experience. Complementing everything are visualisations and graphics by Matylda Damięcka.
