 - 8/ adopting resolutions in other matters brought forward by the Supervisory Board and authorized Shareholders pursuant to the procedure specified in legal regulations,

- 9/ retiring stock and defining detailed terms and conditions for such retirement,
 - 10/ passing resolutions in other matters where the General Shareholders' Meeting is competent under legal regulations and other provisions of the Articles of Association.
3. The General Shareholders' Meeting acts under bylaws adopted thereby.
 4. The General Shareholders' Meeting shall be opened by the Supervisory Board Chairman or Deputy Chairman, and it shall be conducted by the Chairman of the General Shareholders' Meeting, without prejudice to the right of the Shareholders who represent at least half of the share capital or at least half of the total votes in the Bank, to appoint the Chairman of the Extraordinary General Shareholders' Meeting pursuant to the provisions of section 1 of this paragraph.

Matters brought forward to the General Shareholders' Meeting should be presented by the Management Board to the Supervisory Board for review prior to the Meeting. The Shareholders holding jointly at least one twentieth of share capital, who following the procedure stipulated in paragraph 8 section 1 demand that an Extraordinary General Shareholders' Meeting be convened or file, in writing or in electronic format, a demand that certain matters be included in the agenda of the nearest General Shareholders' Meeting, or propose in writing or through use of means of electronic communications their own draft resolution on a matter included in the agenda or proposed to be included therein, shall submit their demands, motions or drafts in advance in writing to the Management Board. The demand for inclusion of certain matters in the agenda of the nearest General Meeting should be lodged not later than 21 days before the appointed term thereof, with justification or draft resolution concerning the proposed item of the agenda.

§ 10

Subject to cases described in Code of Commercial Companies, the General Shareholders' Meeting shall be valid if at least one fourth of the Bank's share capital is represented at the Meeting. Simple majority of votes shall be required for validity of resolutions. A majority of three quarters of votes shall be required for matters regarding amendment of the Articles of Association, dissolution or merger of the Bank, issuance of convertible bonds and bonds with pre-emptive rights, retirement of shares (subject to Art. 415 § 4 of the Code of Commercial Companies), decrease of share capital, increase of share capital and sale of the enterprise or its organised part; and a majority of two thirds in matters regarding a material change of the Bank's operation.

§ 11

The voting shall be open. Secret ballot shall be ordered for elections and in case of motions for recalling from the Bank's governing bodies, for motions to recall liquidators, on to hold members of the Bank's governing bodies or liquidators liable, and also on personnel issues. Moreover, secret ballot shall be ordered upon demand of at least one Shareholder present or represented at a General Shareholders' Meeting.

Supervisory Board

1. The Supervisory Board shall be composed of at least five members. At least half of the members of the Supervisory Board, including its Chairman should have Polish citizenship. At least two members of the Supervisory Board should be independent. The number of members of the Supervisory Board shall be defined by the General Shareholders' Meeting.
2. Members of Supervisory Board shall be appointed for a common term of office.
3. An independent member of the Supervisory Board is a person who has no direct and indirect relations with the Bank, Members of the Management Board and other Members of the Supervisory Board with important shareholders, nor with entities related thereto, in particular relations that may originate conflicts of interest endangering this person's capacity of appraisal, where in particular this person:

- 1/ does not hold directly or indirectly 5% or more of the total number of votes in the Bank,
 - 2/ does not receive from the Bank any financial benefits of significant value, other than remuneration for membership in the Supervisory Board,
 - 3/ is not and has not been for 3 years prior to appointment to the Supervisory Board, a chartered auditor of the Bank or of any subsidiary of the Bank, or an employee of any entity acting as chartered auditor of the Bank, or of a subsidiary of the Bank,
 - 4/ has not been for 3 years prior to appointment to the Supervisory Board, a member of the Management Board of the Bank, or a person holding a key management position in the Bank, or in a subsidiary or parent entity of the Bank,
 - 5/ is not a parent entity of any entity providing permanent paid services to the Bank or a subsidiary of the Bank (as defined in the Act on Trading in Financial Instruments), and does not hold a management position in any entity providing such services,
 - 6/ is not a spouse, a concubent, or a child of a member of the Supervisory Board, a member of a Management Board, or any other person holding a key management position in the Bank,
 - 7/ is not at the same time a member of the Management Board of any company, in which a member of the Management Board of the Bank sits on its Supervisory Board,
 - 8/ has been sitting on the Bank's Supervisory Board no longer than 12 years.
4. The criteria for determining independence should be defined by the relevant governing body of the Bank and should comply with requirements contained in legal or regulatory rules valid from time to time, whereas the decision regarding such determination should be duly justified whenever it diverges from the criteria set forth in Sec. 3 or other criteria derived from non-mandatory recommendations applicable to the Bank.

1. The members of the Supervisory Board shall be elected by the General Shareholders' Meeting, but the mandate of the members of the Supervisory Board shall expire on the date of holding the General Shareholders' Meeting, approving the financial statement and the report on the activities in the last full financial year of the Supervisory Board members' tenure. The term of office of the Supervisory Board shall be 3 years. The mandate of a Supervisory Board member shall also expire in result of death, resignation or dismissal from the Supervisory Board. If the mandate of the Supervisory Board member expires before end of the term of office, the nearest General Shareholders' Meeting shall supplement the composition of the Supervisory Board.
2. The Supervisory Board shall elect the Chairman, Deputy Chairmen and Secretary from among its members.

The Supervisory Board shall act in compliance with Bylaws it has adopted.

1. Subject to Sec. 2 hereof, validity of resolutions of the Supervisory Board shall require invitation to the meeting of all the Supervisory Board members and the presence at the meeting of at least half of the Supervisory Board members. Resolutions of the Supervisory Board shall be adopted with a simple majority of votes. In case of an equal number of votes, the vote of the Chairman of the Supervisory Board shall prevail.
2. Supervisory Board members may take part in the adoption of the Supervisory Board's resolutions by casting their votes in writing through another Supervisory Board member. The casting of a vote in writing cannot apply to matters added to the agenda in the course of the Supervisory Board meeting. In case of an equal number of votes, the vote of the Chairman of the Supervisory Board shall prevail.
3. The Supervisory Board may also adopt resolutions by way of voting in-writing or by using means of direct remote communication, provided all members of the Supervisory Board have been notified of the text of the draft resolution. Written voting is admissible if all members of the Supervisory Board consented in writing to such procedure for adopting resolutions. In case of an equal number of votes, the vote of the Chairman of the Supervisory Board shall prevail.

4. The procedure referred to in section 2 and 3 shall not be applied in case of election, dismissal or suspension in function of Chairman or Deputy Chairman of the Supervisory Board, and also in case of appointment, dismissal or suspension, in her/his actions, as a Management Board member.

The Supervisory Board shall meet on the as-needed basis, convened by the Chairman of the Supervisory Board, or at the motion of a member of the Supervisory Board or the Management Board of the Bank, submitted to the Chairman of the Supervisory Board. The meetings shall be held at least once a quarter.

2. Supplementary capital, in the part exceeding 1/3 of the share capital, may be allocated to increase the share capital.
3. Within the limits set forth in Sec. 2, supplementary capital may be also allocated for other purposes.
4. The General Shareholders' Meeting shall specify the total amount, which may be utilised from supplementary capital – pursuant to Sec. 3. Unless otherwise provided for by a resolution of the General Shareholders' Meeting, the detailed rules for utilisation of supplementary capital shall be specified by the Supervisory Board.
5. Supplementary capital, in the amount of one third of share capital, may only be used to cover loss reported in the financial statement.

1. Reserve capital and general risk fund shall be created from net profit write-offs.
2. Reserve capital may be assigned to cover the loss reported in the income statement or not covered loss carried forward; to pay dividend; to purchase own shares in cases stipulated in Art. 362 § 1 item 1 and 2 of the Code of Commercial Companies and to other purposes as provided in resolutions adopted by the General Meetings of Shareholders.
3. The General Risk Fund shall be assigned to cover unidentified risks of banking activity.
4. The General Shareholders' Meeting may create and eliminate special funds allowed by law.

§ 37

1. The Bank's net profit, shall be allocated as follows:
 - 1/ at least 8% (eight per cent) to supplementary capital,
 - 2/ to additional reserve capitals and funds in an amount defined annually by the General Shareholders' Meeting, separately for each of those capitals and funds,
 - 3/ to dividend for Shareholders in an amount defined annually by the General Shareholders' Meeting.
The General Shareholders' Meeting may allocate the dividend or its part for payment, in the increased share capital of the Bank, for shares to be acquired by the current Shareholders,
 - 4/ other purposes pursuant to resolutions of the General Shareholders' Meeting.
2. Dividend may be paid in cash or in securities.
3. If the amount of supplementary capital is at least one third of share capital, the write-off provided for in Sec. 1 point 1 may be waived.

§ 38

1. Payment of dividend from shares shall be made on dates specified by the General Shareholders' Meeting.
2. The Management Board is entitled to pay out to Shareholders an advance towards the expected end-of-financial-year dividend, provided the Bank has means sufficient for payment.
3. The Bank may pay the advance towards the expected dividends if its approved financial report for the previous financial year shows profit. The advance may amount to not more than half of the profit earned from the end of the previous financial year, shown in a financial report audited by the chartered auditor, increased by additional reserve capital created out of profit, which is at the disposal of the Management Board for purposes of payment of the advances, and reduced by losses not covered and own shares.

The General Shareholders' Meeting shall decide on the way to cover loss. Unless otherwise provided in a resolution of the General Meeting, the loss shall be covered from supplementary capital, then – in cases and within boundaries permitted by law - from other capital and funds, and lastly from share capital.

§ 40

The General Shareholders' Meeting shall decide about the use of additional reserve capital and funds. The General Shareholders' Meeting may define the total amount that can be used from additional reserve capital and funds for specific purposes. If the General Shareholders' Meeting does not resolve otherwise, the Supervisory Board shall establish detailed principles of using this capital and funds in the form of relevant bylaws.

§ 41

The annual financial report and the annual report on activity of the Bank shall be prepared within three months as of the end of the financial year and presented by the Bank's Management Board to the Supervisory Board. The financial year shall be a calendar year. The first financial year after the change shall end on 31 December, 2000.

§ 42

The annual financial report (and the annual consolidated report of the capital group) together with the annual report on activity of the Bank shall be submitted by the Management Board to the General Shareholders' Meeting.

VII. Final Provisions

§ 43

In case of the Bank's dissolution, the General Shareholders' Meeting shall appoint, at the motion of the Supervisory Board, one or more liquidators from among the members of the Bank's Management Board and shall stipulate the liquidation procedures. Upon appointing the liquidators, the rights and duties of the Management Board shall cease.

§ 44

The General Shareholders' Meeting and the Supervisory Board shall retain their powers throughout the whole period of liquidation until its completion, unless the Code of Commercial Companies and the Banking Law provide otherwise.

§ 45

The obligatory notifications by the Bank shall be placed in Monitor Sądowy i Gospodarczy, as provided for in the law. If the law moreover requires notifications in a newspaper, it will be placed in "Rzeczpospolita" daily.

§ 46

Binding legal regulations shall apply to all the matters, which are not regulated hereunder.
