PART I. GENERAL PRINCIPLES FOR COLLECTING BANKING FEES AND COMMISSIONS

1. Price list for customers of Corporate Banking, hereinafter referred to as "Price list" lays down the principles of provision of services in favour of Clients applied by Bank Millennium S.A., fees and commissions, collected for performance of the stipulated banking activities and interest rate for banking products covered by the Price list.
2. The expressions used in this Price List shall have the following meanings:
 - a) Bank - Bank Millennium Spółka Akcyjna,
 - b) Client - entity, resident or non-resident, being a party to a Bank Agreement concluded with the Bank or party applying for concluding a Bank Agreement, i.e.: legal persons, organisational units not possessed of legal personality, provided they possess legal capacity and ability to contract obligations or natural persons running a business for their own account, including persons running farms,
 - c) Outlet - an outlet of the Bank providing customer service,
 - d) Current account – Client's bank account kept at the Bank,
 - e) Person ordering the transaction – Client, who holds current account, or who does not have account, but use the Bank's services.
3. All and any bank fees and commissions shall be paid by the person ordering the bank transaction, unless the agreement or the order specify otherwise.
4. Fees and commissions charged on cash transactions should be collected upon performance of the transaction.
5. Fees and commissions charged against the current account shall be payable with the funds from the account, which the transaction concerns, unless the agreement concluded with the Bank or the Client order specify otherwise.
6. If there are no funds on the account (when the fees and commissions are collected from the current account) the Bank reserves the right to debit the account with the fees and commissions due to the Bank in an amount exceeding the funds available on the account.
7. The fees and commissions specified in the Price List shall be accrued and collected on the day of order submission or execution of the transaction, on a monthly basis or in other periods agreed with the Client. The fees and commissions concerning Custodial Services shall be collected up to 10th every month or in other periods agreed with the Client.
8. The fees for maintenance of a current account in foreign currency are collected from the zloty current account, which was the earliest to be opened at the Bank, or from another current account provided by the Client.
9. Fees and commissions are collected in zloty, subject to item 11.
10. In calculating the amount of due fee or commission, an amount below half grosz shall be rounded-down to a full grosz, while an amount equal to or higher than half a grosz shall be rounded-up to a full grosz.
11. The Bank shall collect fees and commissions in foreign exchange:
 - a) Due on FX loans granted when the current account kept in the currency of the loan is specified in the loan agreement for servicing payments of Bank's loan receivables, including fees and commissions; if the fee or commission is expressed in the Price list as an amount and in zloty, then for collection purposes it is subject to conversion into the loan's currency,
 - b) Due on other FX bank operations provided it is stipulated in the Price list or agreement concluded with the Client.
12. The Bank shall perform conversions of due fees and provisions on the basis of the Foreign Exchange Rate Table of Bank Millennium S.A. in force at the time of collection, in accordance with the following rules:
 - a) Fees or commissions established in zloty and collected in foreign currency – the Bank shall convert at the average Bank rate being the arithmetic mean of the buying and selling rates of foreign exchange, in case of collection, letter of credit, guarantee and surety, where a foreign exchange buy rate for corporate credit products apply,
 - b) Fees and commissions set in foreign exchange and collected in zloty – the Bank shall convert at the average Bank rate being the arithmetic mean of the buying and selling rates of foreign exchange, in case of collection, letter of credit, guarantee and surety, where a foreign exchange buy rate for corporate credit products apply, provided no other rate was stipulated in the definition of fee, commission or in the Client's agreement.
13. For conversions referred to in item 12 an individual rate may be applied, as agreed with the Client, in accordance with the FX table in force at the Bank.
14. The fees and commissions charged by the Bank are not refundable. The Bank shall refund a fee, commission or its part in case of relevant unjustified collection or incorrect accrual.
15. In justified individual cases the Bank may agree with the Client a different amount/rate of fee and commission than the one indicated in the Price List.
16. Fees and commissions for non-standard operations that are not stipulated in the Price List shall be accrued in a way agreed directly with the Client
17. The Bank shall inform Clients about changes of the Price List by displaying information in the Bank's premises and in keeping with the provisions of the agreement concluded with the Client.
18. The Price List does not constitute an offer in the meaning of the Civil Law. The existence of a specific item in the Price List does not oblige the Bank to sell the relevant product/service.
19. Irrespective of the fees and commissions stipulated in the Price list the Bank shall also collect fees and commissions and other costs charged by third banks (domestic and foreign) acting as intermediaries in performing the order in the amount specified by these banks.
20. Fees and commissions in the Price List are quoted in net values (amounts) and may be increased by any applicable VAT.
